NOTES

- Note 1. The annual declaration must be made on the anniversary of the company's registration under Part X1 of the Act.
- Note 2. An excepted company is defined as one of the following in the Companies (Fees and Duties) Order 2008 (SD 84/2008):
- "charity" means a company which on its return date is registered as a charity under the Charities Registration Act 1989, or a company that is a wholly owned subsidiary of a charity;
  - "property management company" means a non-profit making company whose sole purpose is to receive regular payments from occupants of a residential property which are used by that company solely for its administration and the management, repair and maintenance of the common parts of that property;
