NOTES

Note A. “Company” means either a company as defined in the Companies Act 1931 or a limited liability company as defined in the Limited Liability Companies Act 1996.

Note B. The Financial Supervision Commission has the power to refuse to register any name that in its opinion is undesirable or it may impose conditions to the use of a name to ensure that it is not undesirable (see Section 16 of the Registration of Business Names Act, 1918).

Note C. This statement must in all cases be signed by a director or the secretary of the company, or in the case of a limited liability company by a manager or member, applying for registration and must be sent by post or delivered to PO Box 345, Companies Registry, Finch Hill House, Bucks Road, Douglas, Isle of Man IM99 2QS within one month of commencing to carry on business.

Failure, without reasonable excuse, to furnish the required statement of particulars within the time specified will, in addition to any disability imposed by the Act, entail liability on conviction to a fine not exceeding £5000; any statement which contains any matter which is false in any material particular to the knowledge of any person signing it will entail liability on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or to a fine not exceeding £5000 or to both such imprisonment and fine.

Where the company applying for registration carries on the business wholly or mainly as nominee or trustee of or for another person or other persons or a corporation, or acts as a general agent for any foreign firm, the additional particulars specified in the Form BN2A must also be furnished on such Form and sent by post or delivered to the Companies Registry in the manner and within the time before specified.
